Letter from the Editor

Holly Lenz

I had a big exciting day planned today with a visit to my horse, a draft horse show, and watching a baseball game at PGE Park. Unfortunately, my baby had other ideas, and I am stuck under doctor ordered house arrest (or partial bed rest as they call it) for the weekend. The baby is sitting low and thirty-three weeks is a bit soon for the baby to come out. Monday I go in for an ultrasound and determine exactly what the situation is. Until then, I have to take it easy. I hate taking it easy.

So instead of my exciting weekend, I have spent a lot of time with my head buried in a book instead. I am reading "Ride the Wind" about a girl who gets kidnapped and raised by Comanches. I bought the book for fifty cents at a book store because it had horses on the cover. It was a good purchase as it is a very interesting read. The book has the cover of a romance, which it is, though an incredibly violent one. It is based on a true story, but it is hard to know how much is fiction, and how much is not.

Recently I picked up a book on Calvary Horses in World War II at an antique store and found a photo of a lovely gray arabian labeled as Witez. One problem though- Witez was bay. Any idea who the mystery horse might be? Perhaps one of these days I will scan in the photo and send it around to see if someone recognises the photo.

The AiM Sporthorse show is next week. Regretfully, I will most likely not be able to go watch, unless by some miracle the doctor's change their mind and decide I can get out and play after all. I hope other members will get lots of photos for the next newsletter. I look forward to getting your updates about the summer shows, summer foals, and other news. By the way, anyone who has a classified ad in the newsletter, please do let me know if I should take it out. I'm never quite sure what to do with them unless I hear from you. Thanks!

Satin is doing well. I hope to go out and groom her this week. I probably will not be able to take her on walks for a while though. Give your horses a hug for me and good riding!

Hanoverian Mare & Foal Inspection

I'm hoping to get the word out to your membership about our upcoming (Aug 17) Hanoverian Mare & Foal inspection in Sherwood,OR.

Registered Arabian and Anglo-Arab mares are eligible for inspection. This would make their foals (by approved Hanoverian stallions) registerable with the American Hanoverian Society and also eligible for awards.

An exciting opportunity to increase the value of your mare and her sporthorse foals.

Mares must be entered before August 17. Please feel free to contact me for more info and enrollment forms.

Any assistance you can offer to get this message out to mare owners would be greatly appreciated.

AHBAO Camp Out, Trail Ride & BBQ

August 6-9: Check in 4 pm Thursday - August 6, Check out by 1 PM on Sunday - August 9th.

Our club has opened this event to all members of Region 4. There are some sites still available. If you are a day rider and would like to hang out after your ride, there will be a few available corrals for your horses.

L.L. "Stub" Stewart State Park - Hares Canyon Horse Camp will be the place to be for this 38th annual club event. This will be our first year with full hookups, flush toilets, hot showers, phone, vending machines, camp host and a paved road all the way! Yet the camp is located way back from everyone else and it seems like you are many miles from civilization! The club has reserved 7 sites. Some of the sites have been reserved, so check with Bev Nadeau or Kathy Nelsen to see what is still available. A couple sites are set up for two camping units and have 6 corrals. Each evening we have a big campfire. Everyone is invited to join in. Clayhill Horse Staging, right next to the camping area, is available with plenty of room for the day riders. The park has trails for every level of rider. They are well marked. The 21 mile Banks-Vernonia State Trail, which is an old railroad bed, goes thru the park for 3.5 miles. Even if you don't bring a horse, you may want to use the beautiful, paved bike and hiking trails. The views from some of the trails are breath-taking. Bring your camera!

Whats cookin'? Thursday evening will have a hot dog roast, Friday evening Salmon, Saturday, about 3 PM will have Pulled Pork with all the trimmings. Potluck salad, beans, snacks, dessert are welcome! Sunday morning, before we all head for home, pancake and egg breakfast will be served. Refreshments will be furnished for all meals.

Directions: Take Highway 26, West of Portland towards Banks. 7 Miles NW of Banks on Highway 47. There are large signs directing you to the park and Hares Canyon Horse Camp.

Fees: Day use fee, without a permit is $3 - payable as you enter the park.

Day Riders - We welcome you to join us for meals - if so, bring a snack to share.

AHBAO Campers - $28 per night, includes full hookup and a four-horse corral. Includes the "Whats Cookin'" menu.

AHBAO Campers using the double sites - $46 per night, includes full hookup and a six-horse corral. Includes the "Whats Cookin'" menu.

The park charges a $5 per day for extra vehicles at each site. A camp host will be on site, so make sure you have a leash for your pets.

Hosted this year by: Bev Nadeau (503)- 347-5594 and Kathy Nelsen (360) - 798-2821.

Just wanted to tell you that my son, Lincoln Falk, riding Heather AlKrush, won the AHA Region IV 50 mile endurance championship last Sunday. They came in 6th overall and missed BC (Best Condition) by just 3.5 points (out of a possible 800).

Next weekend, Heather and Lincoln are going to do a 30 mile LD at Pacific Crest near Ashland with me. AND her only son, Wilde Ivey Aziz is going to come from California to ride with us. How cool is that? Mother and son. I will assure you that I will be the weak link!!! I might just have to let them go on without me!
